Make Your Preparations!

for the cold wintry days and nights that always come with the winter months. We have received one of the largest shipments of stoves and stove pipe that was ever received in Snyder, and among them are to be found stoves of every style, size and price.

If you want a stove for your parlor, bed room, sitting room or kitchen, in any style or size, we have just the stove for the particular place. At this time of the year one must discard their oil cook stoves and install cast or steel ranges. We have one of the largest and best assorted assortments of cast and steel ranges that we ever at anytime had the pleasure of showing.

Our stoves are all manufactured by the Evansville Stove Foundry Co., of Evansville, Indiana, one of the oldest and most reliable stove manufacturers of the world. When you buy a stove built by the Evansville Stove Foundry Co., you get a stove that is made of the highest quality material obtainable and all material and workmanship are guaranteed, perfect.

Come in and look over our stoves, get our prices, compare quality and price with other stoves, and you will be easily convinced that we are offering you one of the best made stoves at a reasonable price.
